

AAKRITI

presents

FUSION '16

powered by Parinaama Development Foundation

Fusion'16 is a collection inspired by today's modern woman who's fierce independent and bold, yet has her roots and culture imbedded in her.

Hand woven Khadi cloth has been designed into comfortable dailywear; a seamless blend of modern and traditional.

All garments have been created by the beneficiaries of the Sewing Micro-enterprise program in Orissa who have been trained by Parinaama Development Foundation.

Details :

Hand Woven White Khadi Crop Top teamed with a checkered palazzo and a red sling bag.

Outfit Tip- Add prints or a dash of colour to this basic crop top and sail through the day!

Details :

Tri-piece Hand Woven Khadi cloth, cut and stitched together into a Striped Crop Top paired with black leggings.

Outfit Tip- Team this striped crop top with a pair of coloured denims and master the Colour Blocking trend.

Details :

Basic Blue Button-down Khadi Shirt teamed with ripped jeans and all white sneakers.

Outfit Tip- Wear it open with a solid tee or buttoned and tucked for a more formal look. It can be teamed with any and every lower so don't hesitate to experiment.

Details :

Solid Red High-Neck Khadi Crop Top paired with black leggings.

Outfit Tip- Team this single-coloured basic crop top with a pair of striped heels to take this outfit from casual to formal instantly.

Details :

Pink Fromal Khadi Shirt teamed with a black pencil skirt and black heels.

Outfit tip- Wear this bright hued shirt with a pair of high waisted flared trousers or a skirt, pull out your geek glasses and be boardroom ready in five!

Details:

Green Long Button-Down Khadi Slit Skirt teamed with a halter neck basic crop top.

Outfit Tip- This long skirt is not only comfortable for a chic look but it's pastel shade makes it score high on the utility list since it can be teamed up with any shade.

Load this up with lots of junk jewellery and score major points!

Details:

Pastel Orange Khadi Midi Skirt teamed with a floral scarf and all-white sneakers.

Outfit tip- This chic midi skirt can be worn high up on the waist to elongate the torso with a solid colour or a striped camisole for that casual yet quirky summer look. Pair it with a layered neckpiece or long earrings.

Credits-

Project Design and Edits by: Pranati Panda

Pranati is currently pursuing B.com(Hons) from College of Vocational Studies, Delhi University. She has been working with Parinaama for the last one year and has initiated this project as an experiment to understand how traditional khadi wear could be stitched and created into a modern outfit.

Photograph: Abhay Sharda

Abhay is currently pursuing B.com (Hons) from College of Vocational Studies, Delhi university. He has contributed towards this the project by providing his services as a photographer and aims to take it up on as a profession in the future.

Model: Simran Sandhu

Simran is a student at Kamla Nehru College, Delhi University. She stepped in as a volunteer to develop the garment concept and has been the lead model for this project displaying the products made by the beneficiaries of our micro-enterprise.

Fashion Stylists and Design by: Simran Nandwani and Swati Arora

Simran is a Fashion Styling Image Designing student at Pearl Academy, Noida. She has assisted in defining the style in terms of the look and appeal of the handwoven khadi garments and has also done the hairstyling and makeup for each outfit.

Swati is a Psychology (Hons) student at Gargi College, Delhi University. She has been a part of this project since it's inception and helped create the designs of the garments and provided the outfit tips to enhance and modernise the way each basic garment could be worn.